

IT'S NOT JUST ABOUT THE MONEY

When most people think about elder law, wills, trusts and Medicaid applications come to mind. But today, elder law is about more than finding a way to pay for nursing home care. It's about getting the right care for your loved one so he or she enjoys the best possible quality of life during long-term illness. That's why the law firm of Robert W. Haley now offers Life Care Planning, an innovative approach to elder law that helps families respond to all of the challenges presented by long life, illness and disability.

Our multi-disciplinary team is dedicated to insuring quality of care and quality of life for elders.

Caring for an aging loved one can be overwhelming. A Pre-Crisis Life Care Plan helps you put the pieces together before disaster strikes.

Why hire a law firm to coordinate care?

Because elder law is about more than wills and trusts. It's about maximizing your loved one's total well-being.

THE LIFE CARE PLAN: A ROADMAP FOR TOTAL CARE

A Life Care Plan describes how the team at the law firm of Robert W. Haley will meet your elderly, disabled or chronically-ill loved one's medical, long-term care, legal and emotional needs during long-term illness or incapacity. Our multi-disciplinary staff, which includes an attorney and a care coordinator, works together to provide:

- Legal Care, estate planning, including wills, trusts, powers of attorney and advanced directives; Medicaid planning; guardianships; and protection of the elder's right to safe and effective care.
- Care Coordination, which includes locating in-home help and services, coordinating health care and long-term care, family education and decision-making support—for the rest of your loved one's life.
- Patient Advocacy and crisis intervention to help you get the highest quality care for your loved one in every long-term care setting.

IMAGINE LIFE WITHOUT WORRIES ABOUT CARE

A Life Care Plan promises welcome relief from worries before, during and after an elderly loved one's transition to long-term care—all for an affordable flat fee.

Benefits for the Family

- Freedom from the burdens of caregiving and the anxiety about paying for care
- Guidance with every legal, health care and long-term care decision
- Confidence that comes from having a plan for ongoing care as the elder's condition progresses
- Security because the spouse and dependents are provided for
- Relief that you have an advocate on your side

Benefits for the Elder

- The right care sooner
- Preservation of independence for as long as possible
- The ability to age with dignity

Peace of mind—for the elderly and their families—is the goal of every Life Care Plan.

DO YOU NEED A LIFE CARE PLAN?

If any of the following statements describe your situation with a spouse or parent, a Life Care Plan can help you breathe easier.

1. The primary caregiver is suffering from burnout, ill health, frustration or guilt
2. Family members are confused about what to do next or where to get help
3. He/she was recently diagnosed with cancer, Alzheimer's disease or other chronic condition
4. He/she has recently suffered a medication mistake, fall in the home or other accident
5. You recently discovered your loved one wandering, malnourished, dehydrated or unable to provide self care
6. Your loved one recently had a stroke, heart attack or other health emergency
7. Your loved one is currently hospitalized and you've been told that returning home is not an option
